MESSAGE FROM THE BISHOP

Dear Friends in Christ,

I am so grateful to have this opportunity to thank you for the warm welcome and support you have shown to me personally during these past months, but in particular to thank you for the support you have shown the Diocese as a whole. How uplifting it is for me to review and reflect on the great generosity of so many people detailed in this annual report of the Catholic Community Foundation for Eastern South Dakota.

This year has been a challenging year. Yet so many have continued to share their blessings to assure that the ministries of the diocese are supported. Your gifts help sustain and encourage others who are uplifted by your generosity. Know of my personal gratitude for the ways you share your time, talent and treasures.

I also appreciate the significant work of the Catholic Community Foundation board and staff in creatively assisting people in being good stewards of the gifts they have been given. This effort has immediate positive impact on the ministries, on so many people and provides long-term support that will allow the good work of the Church to continue far into the future.

In gratitude,

+ Donald E DeGrood

Most Reverend Donald E. DeGrood
Bishop of Sioux Falls

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR & PRESIDENT

On behalf of the board members and staff of the Catholic Community Foundation (CCFESD), we would like to thank the many donors, volunteers and beneficiaries that carry out the work of the Church in eastern South Dakota and beyond. It is a privilege for us to listen to what donors' value most in life, about what they are grateful for, and the legacy of faith that they desire to live and to leave.

At the heart of the ministry of the CCFESD is recognizing the reality that all that I am, everything I have and everything I ever will have, is a gift from God. Out of love and gratitude to God for his many gifts and blessings, donors desire to share their blessings with others. This leads to an experience of the "Joy of Giving."

The CCFESD's investment and distribution objectives are committed to Catholic moral and social values. We ensure that the donors' legacies in our 845 endowments will forever follow their Catholic values and wishes, to perpetually impact the charities they designate.

It is out of a deep sense of gratitude to God that we share this annual report of activities of the CCFESD through June 30, 2020. In spite of the challenges brought on by Covid-19, donors continued to support the many charities that they care most about – and to reach out to those particularly challenged by the pandemic. For a detailed list of donors, funds, and our annual independent audit, we invite you to visit www.ccfesd.org.

Gratefully in Christ,

LEAVING A LEGACY OF FAITH

In their desire to help and love their neighbor, the late Pat Wingen and his wife Theresa, of Vermillion, SD, made a commitment to follow where the Holy Spirit leads them. To look outward, beyond immediate family and friends, to see where the need is greatest, not only took courage, but also purposeful planning. Their journey of love resulted in their creating an endowment that will survive them and benefit their community for generations.

“Pat felt very blessed for everything he had and he always had a giving spirit,” Theresa Wingen said. “That’s what led him to be so generous and philanthropic.”

The Wingens wanted to be involved in where their funding was used and set their donations up through an undesignated Endowment and a Donor Advised Fund through the Catholic Community Foundation. This type of estate planning not only benefits the charities that receive funds, but also those who are granting the funds as they experience the joy of giving.

“Neither of us grew up having a whole lot,” Theresa said. “It’s a blessing to see the fruits of our labor going to and sharing with those in need; we gave without any expectation.”

Many times, those blessings and fruits of one’s giving can be seen in the legacy it leaves in the lives of those around them. Even though Pat passed from this earthly life last February, his influence on his family, friends, and community will continue to be experienced for generations.

“A person’s legacy is the story they leave behind so they are not forgotten. Their legacy provides important lessons and guidance for future generations,” Pat’s son Chris Wingen said. “A significant part of dad’s legacy was his passion for charity and philanthropy, that legacy lives on in his children and the people closest to him.”

LIVING GOSPEL VALUES

In his many parables about the wise steward, Jesus encourages each of us to use our talents well. To not hide them, but rather to multiply them. What talents have you been given? Are you using those talents or are you hiding them, not allowing them to multiply?

Ken & Amy Novak have lived in many different parts of the world with Ken's military service. In each location, they had opportunities to work with homeless shelters, new immigrant refugees, and people from all walks of life from Syrian Christians to Muslims.

"We've lived a trajectory of holy disruption, as Ken describes it," Amy said. "It has really blessed us and allowed us to meet people where they're at in all sorts of walks of life."

From directing RCIA for both youth and adults for more than 23 years, to leading national and international mission trips, Ken and Amy have helped young minds grow in their faith and provide examples of leadership for the formation of service. As parents of eight children, two of color who are adopted, they always felt deeply called to work with youth.

"Young people are super inspiring; if you want hope, invite young people to your dinner table," Amy said. "Ken and I have been the incredible beneficiaries of their energy. They have taught us how to love without judgment, how to take risks, and how to act with courage and conviction."

The Novaks discussed how they wanted to offer opportunities to the young people in their Catholic community in Mitchell to experience the world as they had both seen as young adults; experiences shaping their own faith and changing how they viewed the world. This ultimately allowed them to lead 37 youth and adults on a missionary trip to Mexico for a week of ministry ranging from working with single mothers, with those struggling with addictions, the rural poor, and young children.

"Amy and I have invested over 23 years of our married life in teaching the faith," Ken said. "We are passionate about our faith," added Amy.

CINDY KORMAN

Service to others is a core value of the Catholic Community Foundation. The staff serve as advocates for donors, helping donors partner with the beneficiaries that they feel called to serve.

A key component to the CCFESD's success is its volunteers, beginning with its Board of Directors, who donate their time and energy to advance the mission of the CCFESD. This year the CCFESD would like to spotlight Cindy Korman, a member of the CCFESD Board of Directors who is also a volunteer leader of the annual "Taste the Goodness" charity event for the Bishop Dudley Hospitality House.

"Cindy is the epitome of an unsung, everyday hero," said Jan Feterl, Director of Marketing & Special Events for the CCFESD. "She does so much critical work behind the scenes that few people ever see, but our staff sees it and is deeply grateful."

Cindy has volunteered for the CCFESD for five years. Among her many contributions, Cindy coordinates the "Taste the Goodness" silent auction. She is inspired by the difference the CCFESD makes in the community with their events and the impact in helping make people's lives better.

"Besides working together with the amazing volunteers helping with the event – the members of the committees, including the auction committee and the foundation staff – the best thing about "Taste of Goodness" is the camaraderie and evangelization of the Sioux Falls community, young and old, coming together to support a worthy cause," Cindy said.

VOLUNTEERS

The Catholic Community Foundation is always looking for great volunteers. We have a variety of opportunities with flexible schedules. Help us further our mission and vision by supporting others to experience the joy of giving. If you would like to hear more about our volunteer opportunities please contact our volunteer coordinator Krista Vandersnick, kvandersnick@ccfesd.org or 605-988-3769.

TASTE THE GOODNESS

The Catholic Community Foundation hosts seven annual events each year, designed to benefit an important cause, as well as introduce CCFESD to donors and to highlight Church ministries in our local communities.

The newest and fastest growing event is “Taste the Goodness.” This event is not only important for the annual designated beneficiary, currently for The Bishop Dudley Hospitality House, but according to event chair Melissa Howes, “Taste the Goodness” also allows the public to be reminded that service to others through the CCFESD annual events and charitable estate planning are what keeps worthy programs afloat each year.

“It is vital for Sioux Falls to recognize the importance of the Bishop Dudley House in our community and to see what the Catholic Church is doing locally, not just being a place of worship,” Howes said. “We have a nice time of fellowship with food, drinks, and activities, but we also bring recognition and observance to the hardships experienced by the homeless in our community.”

Held in August, Taste the Goodness is an outdoor showcase of unlimited food and beverage tasting, as well as activities and music. Despite the global pandemic in 2020, the event saw an increase of 100 people to 873 attending this year and raised $85,000 for the BDHH, a 30-percent increase over 2019.

“It takes a village and some wonderful people that donate,” Howes said. “We couldn’t do it without our vendors and volunteers, or the restaurants who donate their food, prepare it and serve it. We wouldn’t be as successful as we are without their help.”

According to Madeline Shields, executive director of the Bishop Dudley Hospitality House, this donation supports all the programs keeping the doors open, helping with heat, water and electric costs, laundry, technology and meals. The guests are very well aware it is a caring atmosphere supported by the Catholic Church.

“We know how much planning, commitment and work goes into this spectacular event,” Shields said. “It shows the commitment and compassion that members of our Diocese, volunteers and our supporters have for the guests who rely on Bishop Dudley House for their most basic necessities.”

CONNECTING & PROCESSING NON-CASH GIFTS TO DONORS

You do not have to donate a million dollars to make a lasting impact in people's lives. The Catholic Community Foundation is there to help you find ways, both big and small to help others. It specializes in End of Life Planning with Catholic values. In addition, the CCFESD serves the community as a conduit of faith and stewardship of the many non-cash gifts that are donated each year.

One such example comes from St. Katharine Drexel Parish in Sioux Falls, SD. Father Gregory Tschakert noticed a family would attend Mass regularly, but without all of its members at once. Upon further investigation, Fr. Tschakert learned the family could no longer attend Mass together as they had outgrown their vehicle and could not afford to purchase a larger one.

The CCFESD helped Fr. Tschakert facilitate a gift of a van from a parish member to that family, allowing them the ability to once again attend Mass together. This is only one example of a faithful parishioner listening to the Holy Spirit with an openness to helping others.

"The Catholic Community Foundation specializes in helping to connect those who are inspired to give with those who are in need," CCFESD Director of Gift Planning, Andrew Bartell said. "Whether it's a van for a family to attend Mass and take care of their growing children, to a farmer wanting to donate a crop, we will work with any non-cash donation to help donors support the charity that they care about."

TEACHERS OF EXCELLENCE

Jesus was a teacher, a mentor, sincerely dedicated to leading by example and helping his disciples understand what it means to love one's neighbor and care for those who are in need. What better place for an education than a school keeping Jesus Christ at the center of the community and its educational programs.

This past year, the Catholic Community Foundation for Eastern South Dakota served as the bridge between a donor and their desire to honor teachers who exemplify excellence, dedication, and a commitment to modeling Christ's teaching at the Bishop O'Gorman Catholic Schools (BOGCS).

"This school is so much more than a school. The sense of community, with God at the center, is what draws people to this school," a BOGCS "Teacher of Excellence" nominee said. "It is what has kept me here for my entire 30-year teaching career."

"My kids tell me that she conveys her sincere interest in them and takes seriously their concerns, joys, troubles, and successes," a parent stated about a nominated teacher. "Most importantly, she exemplifies for them how to live the Catholic faith by her example every day."

"The Catholic Community Foundation is privileged to help donors support the charities that they care about through special events, special projects and charitable estate planning. In short, we are 'Donor Advocates,'" said Mark Conzemius, President of the CCFESD. "These donors, who wish to remain anonymous, are grateful supporters who recognize quality, high performing teachers, who go above and beyond, affirming the faith-filled, dedicated, committed, extraordinary educators who represent the entire staff at BOGCS."

Teachers are nominated by their peers against a set of criteria. Once fully implemented an endowment will allow 10 BOGCS staff be recognized each year with a $10,000 gift.

LEAVING A LEGACY OF FAITH

Who knows what small seeds sown in faith will grow into one day? Faith is a journey and the season of faithful planting, growing, and harvesting may be long and uncertain. “God doesn’t ask that we succeed in everything, but that we are faithful,” said St. Teresa of Calcutta.

According to John and Barbara Lockwood, we should enter into a faith journey without an expectation of reward; God’s timing is not ours and the impact of our work, many times, is a mystery.

“We recognize all that we have is not ours, it is all God’s,” Barbara said. “He asks us to be good stewards of what we have and to work hard to promote Catholic values, the faith and evangelization.”

The Lockwoods have been working with the Catholic Community Foundation to support a number of projects through their Donor Advised Fund. Some of their work has been known and other donations have been anonymous, but they have all been with a prayerful purpose.

Retired educators, they use both typical tithing in their parish, as well as their funds sets aside from investments into an endowment, to make a difference in their community. There is always someone in need and giving to God first is essential.

“The need will never go away, Christ said the poor will always be with us,” Barbara said. “We need to do our part to be a witness and example to others.”

The Lockwoods tell many stories of the way God multiplies their giving into blessings, many not revealed until years later. Such as the time they reached out to a former parish to help, thinking of something small, but was asked to upgrade the tabernacle because the parish had outgrown the smaller one.

“We were anonymous donors and attended the consecration ceremony when the Host was placed in the tabernacle for the first time,” Barbara said. “We were in tears to be part of something so amazing.”

“You never know the impact you have, but every now and then you’ll get a glance,” John said. “It’s always a faith walk.”

DISTRIBUTION & BENEFICIARIES

avera's FARM & RURAL STRESS SERVICES

Many projects and programs supported by the Catholic Community Foundation are about donors looking to change the lives of people and families by listening to Holy Spirit moving in their hearts. However, through unrestricted grants that are managed by the Grant Review Committee of the Board of Directors, the CCFESD is able to review requests and help charitable causes.

This past year, the CCFESD was privileged to approve a grant to assist Avera Health in creating and maintaining a Farm and Rural Stress Hotline where area farmers and ranchers can call and talk to skilled and compassionate mental health professionals as they deal with symptoms of anxiety and depression.

Mother Nature has wreaked havoc on cropland with recent flooding and abnormally wet conditions, coupled with market volatility and a global pandemic has taken a toll on the health of farm families and workers. A historically stoic and put-on-a-good-face group of men and women, South Dakotan farmers and ranchers are in need of relief from the farming crisis through easier access to behavioral health care.

The CCFESD grant partners with Avera Health as they provide resources, including educational programs for farmers, workers, and their families to recognize mental health challenges. Partnering with a Catholic health ministry for one of America's greatest professions – Agriculture.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT.
THE NEED CONTINUES.

Inspired by a desire to help those needing emergency aid, on March 23 the Catholic Community Foundation, in partnership with the Diocese of Sioux Falls, established the Covid-19 Relief Fund. According to the fund administrator, Kelly Bartmann, emergency funds have helped 644 families and 1,182 children through 32 parishes in 21 communities.

Bartmann stated there were so many heart-wrenching stories of people in need, dealing with loss of jobs and, the worst, loss of life as families attempt to recover. For example, in central South Dakota, a priest visited with a dad who had recently lost his young wife to the coronavirus. The local priest was able to provide some financial relief through the fund as the grieving dad finds a way to continue caring for his three small children at home.

“The CCFESD is so thankful to the many pastors who have listened to the needs of their parishioners and neighbors in their respective communities,” Bartmann said. “They took the time to share those requests with us, we were blessed to provide the funding through the Covid-19 Relief Fund, and then the pastors distributed the grants to the people.”

“It’s important that we really focus on how we can tend to each other and care for each other,” said Bishop Donald DeGrood in a video message announcing the Covid-19 Relief Fund, “Here is a chance for us to be brothers and sisters both in a time of need and in our time of generosity.”

“No matter the size of the grant, we are hoping to connect people in their time of crisis and let them know there are others out there that care and are willing to help them. The Foundation continues to be grateful to the hundreds of donors who made it possible for us to distribute the $267,100.”
