LETTER FROM THE BISHOP

Dear Friends in Christ,

I am so grateful to have this opportunity to thank you for the warm welcome and support you have shown to me personally during this past year, but in particular to thank you for the support you have shown the Diocese as a whole. How uplifting it is for me to review and reflect on the great generosity of so many people detailed in this annual report of the Catholic Community Foundation for Eastern South Dakota.

This year has been a challenging year. Yet so many have continued to share their blessings to assure that the ministries of the diocese are supported. Your gifts help sustain and encourage others who are uplifted by your generosity. Know of my personal gratitude for the ways you share your time, talent and treasures.

I also appreciate the significant work of the Catholic Community Foundation board and staff in creatively assisting people in being good stewards of the gifts they have been given. This effort has immediate positive impact on the ministries, on so many people and provides long-term support that will allow the good work of the Church to continue far into the future.

In gratitude,

+ Donald E. Degrood

LETTER FROM THE CHAIR & PRESIDENT

It is out of a deep sense of gratitude to God that we share this annual impact report of activities of the Catholic Community Foundation for Eastern South Dakota (CCFESD). In spite of the challenges of our time, the CCFESD is blessed to be in its strongest financial position, helping donors support the charities that they care about through donor-directed giving.

As an independent Catholic foundation we help people in their stewardship of the gifts God has given them through special projects, special events and estate planning. The CCFESD's investment objectives are committed to Catholic moral and social values. In addition, we will not make distributions or grants to charities that are inconsistent with the teachings of the Catholic Church. Through endowments, we ensure donors' legacies forever follow their values and wishes, providing sustainable financial support to the ministries they designate.

On behalf of our volunteer board members and the staff of the CCFESD, we would like to thank the many donors, volunteers and beneficiaries that carry out the work of the Church in eastern South Dakota and beyond. For a detailed list of donors, funds, and our annual independent audit, we invite you to visit www.ccfesd.org.

It is a privilege to work with and for the CCFESD – to hear what donors' value most in life, about what they are grateful for, and to help them live and leave a legacy of faith for their loved ones and future generations.

Gratefully in Christ,

FRED & JOAN DEROUCHHEY

In Memory of Mom and Dad

What better way of expressing love and honoring one's parents than to take one of their earthly passions and support them through a memorial endowment. Francis and Delores DeRouchey's children chose to create an endowment for one of the central pillars of their catholic faith: St. Anthony of Padua Parish in Hoven, S.D. They both attended St. Anthony Catholic School, were married there, raised their seven children there, and were parishioners of St. Anthony Catholic Church all their lives.

"Dad and mom always supported and were very faithful to the church in Hoven," their son Fred DeRouchey said. "We just felt because they supported the church as much as they could while they were alive, that this would be a great way for them to continue to contribute through a memorial endowment."

At the beginning, Fred and his siblings knew the money would go to the parish, but were uncertain if to use it for a specific project. The Catholic Community Foundation for Eastern South Dakota helped them create a memorial endowment to provide a lasting annual disbursement to St. Anthony.

According to Fr. Darin Schmidt, pastor of St. Anthony in Hoven, endowments can provide the parish with a safety net, something you can count on beyond regular collections. As the endowment grows, so does the opportunity to plan for its use to help the parish in many different ways and ensure the church is still able to serve its community in the future.

"It has brought a lot of joy to our family, the joy of giving; we have a real common goal," Fred said. "This gives all the brothers and sisters a united reason to do something together in our mom and dad's name."

Do you have a family member whom you wish to honor? To memorialize their walk of faith through an endowment will keep their memory and support of their Catholic faith alive for generations. Through their many programs, the Catholic Community Foundation can help bring joy and meaning to your family's time of loss and grief.

Helping Students in Need

"We do not keep them from our children; we recount them to the next generation, the praiseworthy deeds of the LORD and his strength, the wonders that he performed," (Psalm 78:4). What better way to strengthen the walk of faith in the next generation than to provide them with a formal Catholic education? However, what if your family has limited means? Do your children go without? Not if you are from the Aberdeen area.

After watching their children benefit from a Catholic education at Roncalli in Aberdeen, Lee and Peggy Goetz, wanted to bring the many values of that education to those students who could not afford to attend. They, along with Alex and Annie Falk, established the Fund A Student's Tuition (F.A.S.T.) program. It is a needs-based academic tuition assistance fund to provide yearly scholarships to offset some of the student's educational costs.

"My wife and I thought that after all the blessings we had received from Roncalli, that we should do what we could to assist in growing the student body," Lee said. "I thought that if we could find other parents that felt the same way, we could grow a large endowment to provide tuition assistance into perpetuity."

Since its inception four years ago, the fund has dispersed more than $69,000 for children at Roncalli, serving approximately 30 students per year. Donors may give in two ways, an immediate donation for tuition assistance or a structured and sustained donation to the established endowment fund.

The goal of the endowment to eventually grow in size totaling $2.5 million dollars with an annual distribution of $90,000 for students in need. Lee states the growth of the fund would not have been possible without the help of David Vetch, the Aberdeen Catholic Foundation's Executive Director.

"Some of the students would not be able to attend without the assistance. It is difficult to measure all of the impact that the students make on Roncalli. We are thankful that so many students take us up on our offer," Lee said.

Are you inspired to help others through establishing a fund for Catholic education in your parish? The Catholic Community Foundation can help you serve those in need in your legacy of faithful giving.

Watertown Gift Planning Officer, Marne Hult with longtime donor, Jan Wermers.

MORE THAN A DONOR

Walking Together on a Stewardship Journey

Partnering with the Catholic Community Foundation ensures your charitable donations are used to support the charities that you designate. Our team takes pride in listening as we find ways to help you serve others through generous giving. We are the conduits through which your legacy of giving is built and sustained for future generations.

If we cannot find established opportunities for needed funding, we will create them for you. How do we do this? By treating you more than a pocket book or bank account. We treat you with respect and strive to place your legacy of giving first. To us, you are more than just a donor.

"My hearing is poor and I have some health problems keeping me from being connected to the outside world," Joan Mazourek said of Ashley Gullikson. "I'm very fortunate to have her in my life." Joan and Martin Mazourek have very few family members near them as they reach into their 80s and 90s. Ashley Gullikson, from the Catholic Community Foundation office in Yankton, has developed a relationship with the Mazoureks going beyond donations. The Mazoureks have participated in planned giving for many years through endowments for retired priests and Mount Marty University.

Ashley has helped them to doctor appointments and surgeries. It is a service of love and care; building relationships that are less about business and more like family.

"This bond just came very naturally. I don't think either one of us expected that to happen," Jan Wermers said of Marne Hult, from the Catholic Community Foundation office in Watertown. "After we knew each other a couple years, my husband Ray got sick and she was a huge support when Ray was sick. He loved her like I do."

Marne and Jan attend daily Mass together, have lunch and coffee several times a month, and serve on the program committee for the Serra Club in Watertown. The group meets twice a month and prays for all vocations.

Whether it is coffee or lunch, a trip to the doctor, or being a phone call away, the relationships we build with you are part of our ministry. We care about you and your legacy.

PARTNERSHIPS WITH PRIESTS

Working Together for Good

Not only does the Catholic Community Foundation seek to help people, parishes, and ministries, but it also strives to enrich the giver's love of Christ and His Church, as much as it helps strengthen the hope of the receiver in his or her time of need. Faith is a gift from God, and to give freely without expectation increases one's faith and their missionary discipleship walk with Christ.

What if you are already, by your vocation, a man of faith; a priest whose life is a daily outward expression of faith in Christ and the Church? Can you be the giver? Someone who may provide comfort for those in need through a monetary donation, rather than your daily spiritual comfort? With the Catholic Community Foundation's assistance, the answer is, yes.

Bette Theobald, CCFESD retired gift planning specialist, describes one of the earliest organized donors for the Cathedral of St. Joseph in Sioux Falls, were the diocesan priests coming together and donating their limited funds.

"This probably inspired a lot of the parishioners in our diocese, if our clergy are committed this much to it. Especially from them, because they live a very simple life when it comes to pay and that kind of compensation," Bette said. "If all of them are going out of their way to do something with very limited means, it inspires people."

Bette recalls working with Fr. Ed Anderson, a diocesan priest who came to his vocation later in life after retiring as an anesthesiologist. He wanted to dispose of his worldly belongings, such as his home and donate the proceeds. He had curated 40 to 50 pieces of artwork over his lifetime, many from the artist Terry Redlin, and Bette was helping him make a valuation of these possessions.

"I thought 'what are we going to do with the paintings?' and, immediately, I thought of the Broom Tree Retreat & Conference Center," Bette said. "Teaching, sharing the faith, and reaching out were all important to Fr. Ed. So I asked if he would want to consider donating them to Broom Tree; of course he said yes."

Would you like to see the fruits of your labor help someone, or specific ministry? Become a donor to the Catholic Community Foundation and help direct your funds to those you are inspired to help.

EVERYDAY HEROES BUILDING AN AUTHENTIC CULTURE OF LIFE

Through End of Life Planning

By Cameo Anders, JD MA

...daily living... should be filled with self-giving love for others. In this way, our lives will become a genuine and responsible acceptance of the gift of life and a heartfelt song of praise and gratitude to God who has given us this gift. This is already happening in the many different acts of selfless generosity, often humble and hidden, carried out by men and women, children and adults, the young and the old, the healthy and the sick. It is in this context, so humanly rich and filled with love, that heroic actions too are born. These are the most solemn celebration of the Gospel of life, for they proclaim it by the total gift of self. They are the radiant manifestation of the highest degree of love, which is to give one's life for the person loved (cf. Jn 15:13). They are a sharing in the mystery of the Cross, in which Jesus reveals the value of every person, and how life attains its fullness in the sincere gift of self. Over and above such outstanding moments, there is an everyday heroism, made up of gestures of sharing, big or small, which build up an authentic culture of life.

-St. John Paul II, Evangelium Vitae #86

I have been so privileged in my brief time with the Catholic Community Foundation (since May) to participate in the selfless generosity, often humble and hidden, of those who build and sustain the Church. I wanted to use this space to say thank you to those everyday heroes who, through gestures of sharing, big or small, give of themselves in ways that develop and maintain our faith and build and sustain a culture influenced by selfless love: a culture that is life giving. Whether it is supporting young men through seminary so we can have priests, or keeping the lights on at Church for those much needed prayers in front of the Blessed Sacrament, your generosity makes it possible for me, and so many others, to live out our faith. Thank you.

I also want to extend an invitation to solidify that everyday heroism in authentically Catholic end of life planning. In my work as an estate planning attorney (previously) and hospital ethics committee member, I often see that one of the best gifts to give to loved ones at the end of life is the gift of a clearly identified and legally sound plan. As Catholics, we know that the end of earthly life is the joyous beginning of eternal life, but the healthcare, financial and legal decisions often left in the hands of our loved ones can be overwhelming. In addition to alleviating some of the burden on loved ones, I also propose that precisely in this place of planning is a great opportunity for that “radiant manifestation of the highest degree of love;” an opportunity for continuing to build an authentic culture of faith and life. Through the morally sound directions given in a Catholic healthcare power of attorney; through a legacy left to loved ones that includes, not just monetary inheritance, but an inspiration to continue selfless generosity, your end of life plan can encourage others to heroic action...and continue to build a culture of life.

Please don't hesitate to contact me with comments or questions about authentically Catholic end of life planning and thank you, again, for your selfless generosity... for your everyday heroism.

MARY KAY BANNWARTH

Mary Kay Bannwarth, a retired Catholic schools teacher of 25 years, has become a faithful volunteer for the Catholic Community Foundation. She has been a huge asset to the entire foundation team, helping with projects ranging from filing paperwork, collating mailings, organizing event items and so much more! She is our go-to volunteer when we have a list of projects that the staff simply cannot conquer in a timely fashion. She comes in with her wonderful smile and calm energy, greeting everyone as she completes her important tasks. Volunteer Coordinator Krista Vandersnick commented, "Mary Kay is a true hero in our eyes. She is such a joy to have around and is willing to take on anything we ask of her, often on a very short notice."

When asked about her volunteer experience with the Catholic Community Foundation, Mary Kay stated, "I love knowing I'm contributing to help make foundation events possible. Part of my desire in retiring a few years ago was to have the time available to seek out a variety of volunteer opportunities. I had taught in the Catholic school system for 25 years and always loved the faith-filled setting. That's the kind of environment I love here also-doing God's work, being a part of an amazing team of hardworking people, and knowing that I'm helping to further God's plans for our diocese."

We are blessed to have a number of volunteers who help in the office and at events. They don't come in on a regular schedule but always seem to fit our projects into their lives and busy schedules when we need them. We certainly appreciate them all year, but the staff are especially grateful during those really busy, chaotic days leading up to and after an event or specific project.

BISHOP'S CHARITY EVENTS

BISHOP'S CUP 8.24.20

Benefiting Broom Tree Retreat & Conference Center

Once again, the annual Bishop's Cup sold out weeks in advance of the tournament! With a few adjustments to provide for comfort for all participants due to Covid 19, we were able to gross more than ever for the benefit of our beneficiary, Broom Tree Retreat Center.

TASTE THE GOODNESS 8.29.20

Benefiting the Bishop Dudley Hospitality House

Taste the Goodness 2020 was a huge success despite the many challenges presented by the pandemic.

It was amazing to see so many individuals from throughout our diocese come together to support the most vulnerable in our midst who are served at the Bishop Dudley Hospitality House. This has become a "must attend" annual event for many individuals.

GAME DAY EXPERIENCE RAFFLE | 9.13.20

Benefiting the Bishop Dudley Hospitality House

As college football stadiums were closed to fans during the 2020 season, we saw the need to modify our annual Notre Dame Football Experience event. We pivoted to a unique event opportunity to sell raffle tickets for a "game day experience" at Great Shots. The winner was able to invite up to 11 guests to watch the Minnesota Vikings versus the Green Bay Packers, while enjoying golf, great food and beverage.

BISHOP'S CHARITY HUNT 9.21.20 - 9.22.20

Benefiting Newman Catholic Campus Ministry

The 25th annual Bishop's Hunt was held at Horseshoe K Ranch near Kimball. It was a fabulous opportunity for individuals across our diocese to come together to share their faith and hunt side-by-side with our Bishop, many priests, deacons, and representatives from the Newman Catholic Ministries. It was a great reminder of the importance Newman Catholic Ministries plays in the lives of our young adults on our college campus' and the need for our support.

CHRISTMAS AT THE CATHEDRAL | 12.12.20

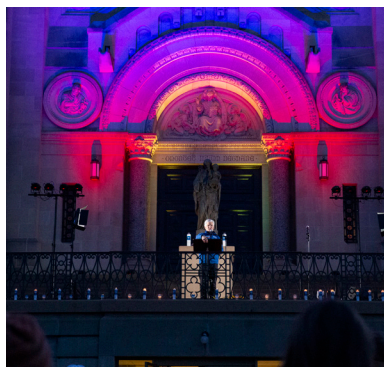

Benefiting the Bishop Dudley Hospitality House & the Cathedral of Saint Joseph Endowments for on-going Care and Maintenance

Out of concern for the health and safety of all our faithful Christmas at the Cathedral guests, the tough decision was made to cancel our in-person concert performances in 2020. In an effort to still bring the beauty of Christmas at the Cathedral to many individuals, a beautiful virtual production, entitled “That’s My God” was produced and provided via DVD or on-demand viewing, as well as via our KELO media partners on Christmas night. Additionally we provided a very special experience to the homeless individuals served at the Bishop Dudley Hospitality House and the guests of St Francis House, at their facilities, with a beautiful meal, cookie reception and private concert viewing.

GIFT OF HOPE 4.10.21

Benefiting Catholic Family Services

After the events of 2020, in an effort to bring together individuals of all ages from across our diocese in support of one another, an outdoor candlelight celebration was held. This moving event, titled “Lighting the Path to Hope and Healing” was held on the stairs of the Cathedral of St Joseph, which was beautifully lit up for the evening. Attendees were immersed in inspirational healing messages from Bishop DeGrood and Director of CFS, Emily Leedom, along with encouraging praise and worship music provided by Jon Konz. This event successfully raised much needed dollars to support the services of Catholic Family Services throughout our diocese.

BISHOP’S CHARITY FISHING TOURNAMENTS 6.5.21 & 6.14.21

Benefiting Seminarian Education

After taking the year off from our in-person fishing tournaments in 2020, we were thrilled to be able to once again gather in Big Stone City and Pierre. Blessed with great weather and the generosity of so many, we enjoyed record breaking turnouts at both of these tournaments. Some of the many highlights included great fishing, a beautiful outdoor Mass celebrated by Bishop DeGrood and several Priests of our diocese, a great time for socializing with our seminarians and many faithful of our diocese and a fabulous prime rib dinner. Additionally a simultaneous virtual fishing tournament was taking place, allowing those unable to attend the in-person tournaments to have a slice of the fun!

Leaving a Legacy of Faith

Helping you leave a legacy of faith is a priority of the Catholic Community Foundation for Eastern South Dakota (CCFESD). A legacy reflects your heart. It is a final testament of who you are, what you value and whom you love.

Serving all of the diverse communities in our diocese with staff living in six communities across eastern South Dakota, the CCFESD team has developed and made available a Catholic End of Life Planning Workshop for any individual or parish in our Diocese. In these workshops parishioners learn how they can plan for their own needs, for the needs of their loved ones, and how to pass on their Catholic values to future generations. Those who attend said that they are grateful that we brought this important planning to them, helping them have meaningful conversations with their loved ones.

The workshop reviews the steps of estate planning and provides free resources, such as information about medical directives, a will & estate planning guide, and more. The Catholic Community Foundation offers Catholic End of Life Planning Workshops for free to individuals and parishes throughout the diocese. We can also bring the presentation to your Catholic organization, club, council, as well as to you, individually.

The topic of "End Of Life Planning" is not always easy to approach. However, ignoring the topic can make life a bit harder to navigate as your health changes or you suddenly lose a loved one.

Laurie Campbell lost her husband Jim on October 1, 2020. Losing Jim has been hard for Laurie and her family but realize it is God's will. Laurie was so thankful for the planning that they had completed prior to Jim's passing. This inspired her to host an End of Life Planning Workshop for Catholics at her parish, St. Mary's in Aberdeen, SD, so that her friends who make up the parish "hospitality circle" could benefit. Laurie shared, "Because Jim and I had made some important decisions beforehand, it does bring our family comfort and healing."

Eleven parishioners joined Laurie for the workshop at St. Mary's Parish Hall, which included a presentation from Gift Planning Officer, David Vetch, of the CCFESD.

The 2021 Bishop's Charity Hunt honored Jim, long-time Bishop's Charity Hunt attendee and Idonor. His years of generosity helped raise numerous funds in support of Newman Catholic Campus Ministry across the Diocese of Sioux Falls and inspired others to experience the joy of giving and leave a legacy of faith.
