

FROM OUR BISHOP

Dear Friends in Christ,

There is no better example to express “The Joy of Giving” than that provided by Jesus Christ. The Gospel is clear about Jesus’ call to love God first and to love our neighbor as our self, and to do so with joy. The joy of giving is a fitting phrase when considering the Catholic Community Foundation for Eastern South Dakota. So many generous and faithful donors give joyfully, helping fulfill our responsibility to share the good news, to teach and reach out in faith, and to care for those among us who need our help and encouragement. We indeed should find joy in returning to God with increase what He has so generously given to us.

The Catholic Community Foundation works to support your parishes and schools, seminarian education, Newman Centers, the TV Mass and so much more. Thank you to all of the donors represented on these pages and to the Catholic Community Foundation board of directors, to the staff, and many volunteers who joyfully share their talents, time, and financial gifts at events throughout the year. May the joy of giving be in your heart. May Joseph, our patron, and Mary, our mother, watch over and guide us.

Yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Paul J. Swain
Bishop of Sioux Falls

FROM OUR PRESIDENT & CHAIR

Dear Friends,

When we recognize all we have and all we are is a gift from God, then we become grateful. Instead of, “What is in it for me?” It becomes, “What can I do for others?” This is when we truly experience the joy of giving. We are grateful to the 23,000 donors who over the past 31 years have expressed Christ’s love through donor-designated giving to the charities they care about.

Our investment and distribution objectives are committed to Catholic moral and social values. We ensure donors’ legacies in our 780 endowments will forever follow their Catholic values and wishes, to perpetually impact the charities they designate.

It is with gratitude for this legacy of faith from our donors, partners, friends, Board of Directors and the Catholic Community Foundation staff, past and present, that we say thank you and gratefully present this year’s annual report.

Gratefully yours in Christ,

Mark Conzemius
President
St. Mary Parish, Sioux Falls

Tom and Jacque Schumacher

One need only look at the smiles on the faces of Tom and Jacque Schumacher to know these two are some of the most joyous and faith-filled people around. “In the almost 46 years of being married, we have been blessed so much,” said Jacque reminiscing on their years of marriage. “Many of the blessings have come from our Catholic faith, and we just have to give back.”

“When we first started working on planning their estate gift, they kept saying this was all because they received so much,” said Nicole Fuher, Gift Planning Officer for the Mitchell Catholic Foundation. “They were so joy-filled. The Schumachers hoped others would benefit from their gift, just as they have benefited from others who came before them.”

“We love the saying,
‘To those who have received much, much is expected’ because it is so true.”
-Jacque Schumacher

Through their estate gift, Tom and Jacque are ensuring their designated beneficiaries will carry on, long after they have met our Heavenly Father. “We love the saying, ‘To those who have received much, much is expected’ because it is so true, and we realize we are part of a bigger entity,” said Jacque. “Rather than being out in Mitchell and keeping everything to ourselves, we see we are part of the whole diocese. We all benefit so much from helping one another – which is why we are so happy to give.”

Pius XII Catholic Newman Center at South Dakota State University, where Tom and Jacque met, is one of the beneficiaries of the Schumachers.

St. Leos Parish in Tyndal, South Dakota.

Nestled within the heart of the Democratic Republic of the Congo in Africa is a very remote, rural and – this is the Diocese of Tshumbe. While visiting Rome in 1999, Bishop Nicolas Djomo met Bishop Robert Carlson, who at the time was Bishop of the Diocese of Sioux Falls. Through their conversations, Carlson quickly learned of the devastating wars, which decimated many of the villages within the Diocese of Tshumbe.

Compassion and love filling his heart, Bishop Carlson invited Bishop Djomo to the Diocese of Sioux Falls to share his stories with the people of eastern South Dakota. Bishop Djomo visited Sioux Falls later that year. While celebrating Mass at the Cathedral of St. Joseph, Bishop Carlson shared some of the stories from Bishop Djomo. It was at this time that Bishop Carlson established the Tshumbe Relief Fund with the Catholic Community Foundation, to assist with fund the relief efforts to rebuild the diocese's hospitals, schools, and parishes.

"It's truly saving lives."
-Bishop Djomo

Bishop Nicolas Djomo, pictured in the Cathedral of Saint Joseph, during his visit in 2016 to the Diocese of Sioux Falls.

For more than 19 years, the Catholic Community Foundation has helped facilitate the efforts of creating a thriving faith-filled community within the Diocese of Tshumbe. "The donations are so important because it is improving lives of everyone in the Diocese of Tshumbe," said Bishop Djomo. "It's truly saving lives."

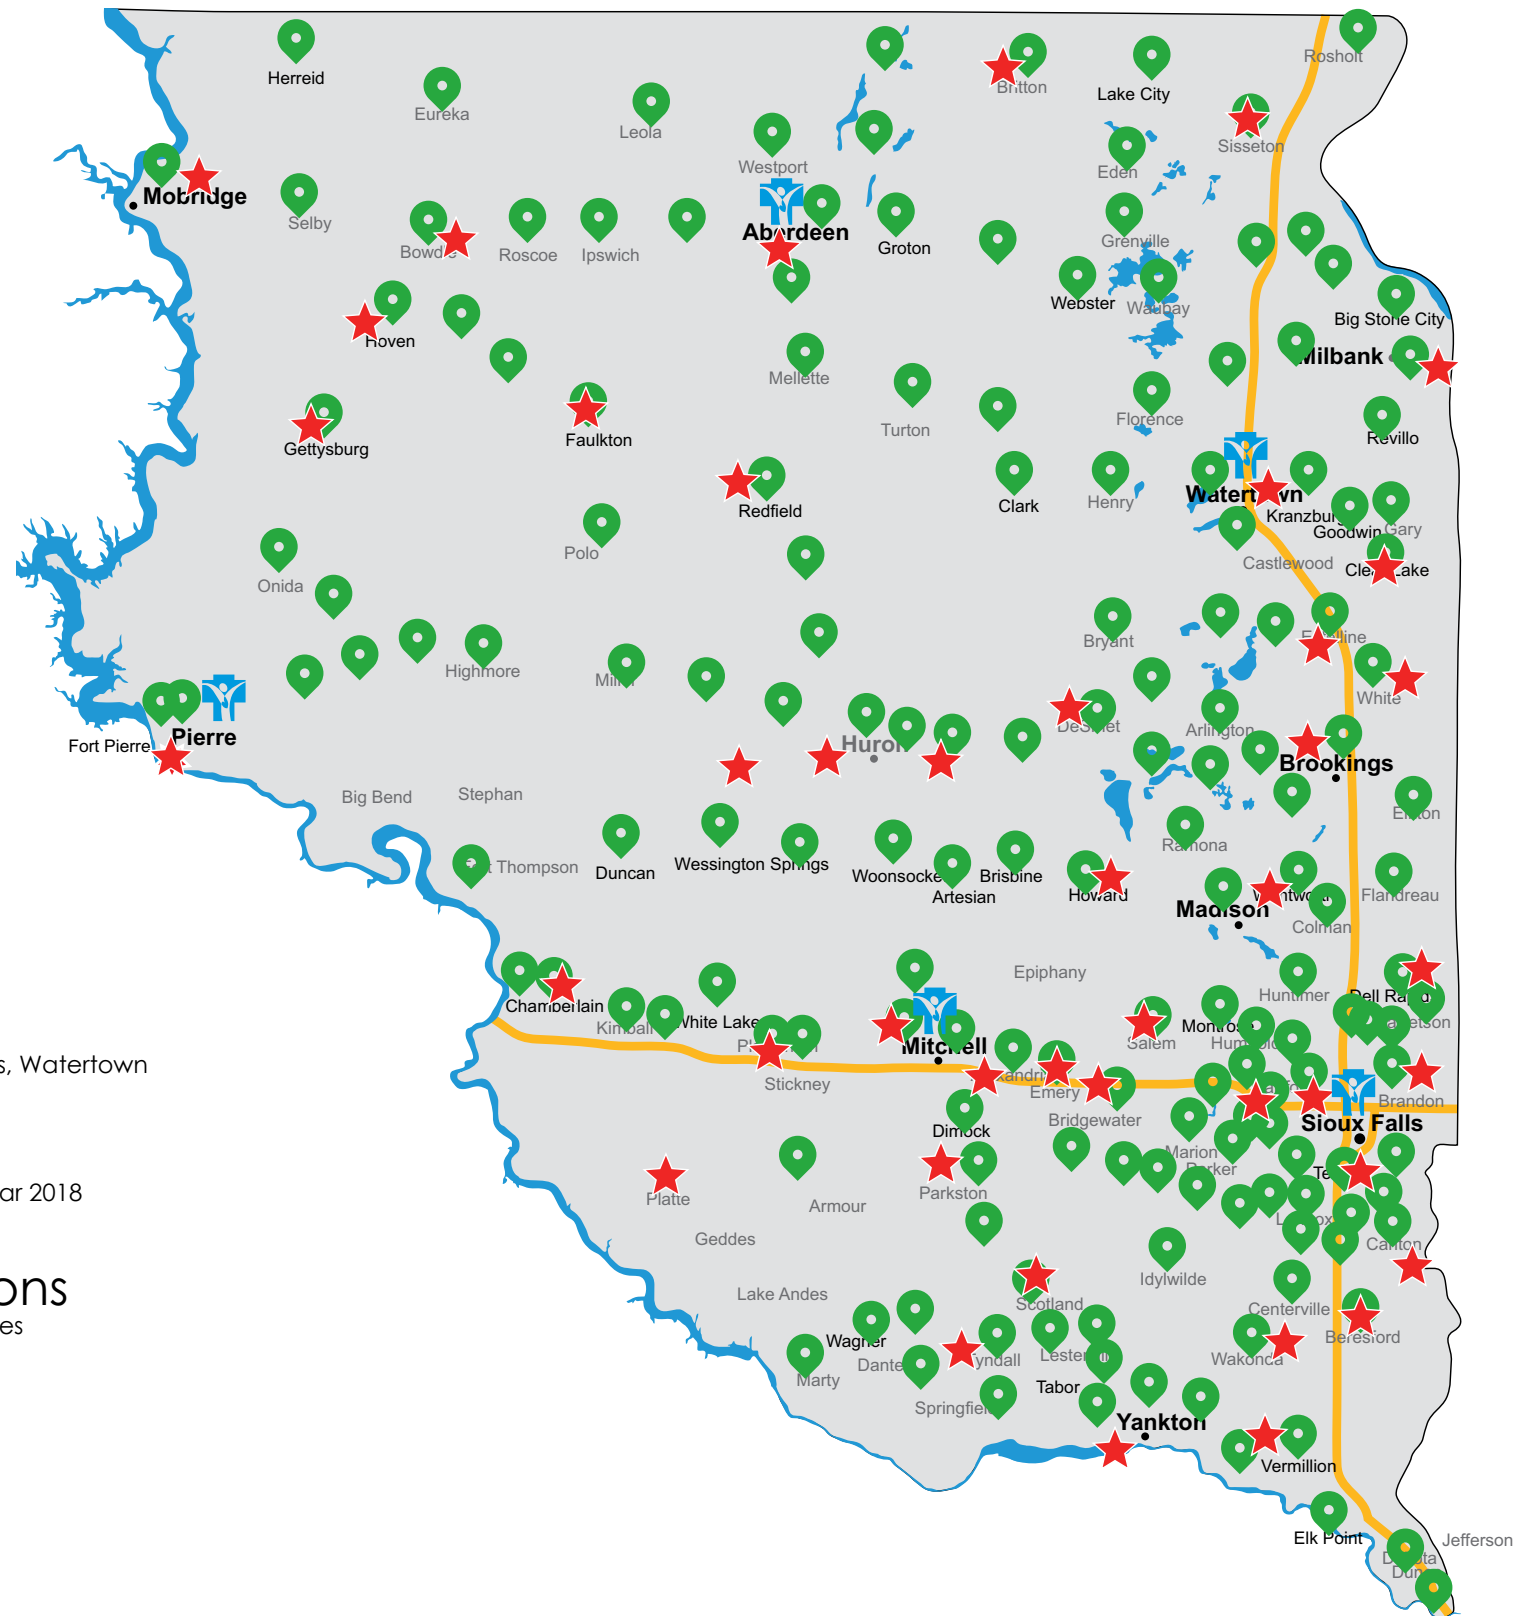

The Diocese of Tshumbe manages and operates multiple schools, hospitals, and orphanages. The Diocese also helps educate seminarians and is creating a healthcare system. The highest priority for the Diocese is the Tshumbe Clean Water Project which will help the entire Diocese of Tshumbe have access to clean water.

For more than 50 years, Fr. James Bream, a retired priest of the Diocese of Sioux Falls, has been a crusader for social justice; helping countless refugees from Eastern Europe, Mideastern Asia, and Africa to live the best life possible. A few years ago, as a visiting priest at Sacred Heart Parish in Yankton, Fr. Paul Somnuk Suthi met with Fr. James Bream to discuss a need to help provide an education to the impoverished youth in his home Diocese of Udon Thani, Thailand. Thus began his quest to develop the Second Chance Shelter.

“Right now, I am who I am because I was given a chance.”
- Fr. Paul Somnuk Suthi

“Fr. Bream’s personal project aims to provide a ‘second chance’ to poor, but deserving young people, at receiving quality education – which poverty would otherwise prevent them from getting,” said Fr. Paul Somnuk Suthi, Vicar General of the Diocese of Udon Thani, Thailand.

Knowing he needed assistance in collecting, and distributing funds to the Second Chance Shelter Fr. Bream turned to the Catholic Community Foundation. It costs $877.55 to fund one child per school year, - this includes tuition, room and board, school supplies, and more. “Right now, I am who I am because I was given a chance,” said Fr. Paul.

It is not often that people feel compelled to support things to which they do not have a direct connection. When it comes to providing scholarships to children wanting to receive a Catholic education in Aberdeen, Charles and Donna Stehley, of Hecla, South Dakota have never been happier to help support this cause.

“Living on a farm outside Hecla, Charles and Donna have no direct connection to the Aberdeen Catholic Schools System,” said David Vetch, the Executive Director of the Aberdeen Catholic Foundation.

“They felt joy and peace knowing their gift was aiding the Church and our kids.” - Dave Vetch of Dave Vetch and Charles Stehly outside of the Stehly home in Hecla, SD.

“They do, however, have a joy for our Catholic Faith, and our youth. They felt joy and peace knowing their gift was aiding the Church and our kids.” Their generosity has helped to provide a Catholic education for many of the children in the Aberdeen community, and none of that would be possible without their help. “The Stehly’s were feeling anxious and not certain where they could use their gifts,” said Vetch. “Through prayer, they found joy and peace with aiding Catholic education and the kids of the Aberdeen community.”

ABERDEEN CATHOLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM

Catholic education has served Aberdeen for nearly 125 years. Throughout our three attendance centers, Roncalli Primary School (preK-2), Roncalli Elementary School (grades 3-6), and Roncalli Junior/Senior High School (grades 7-12), children receive a quality Catholic education.
